Career Highlights

A native Haligonian, Amy Kerr began her career as a model at the age of fifteen. A multiple award winner at myriad modeling and acting competitions, as well as beauty pageants, Amy has booked many internet and print campaigns including Kameleon Jewelry, uMame Maternity, Metrin Skincare, Bodog, Maxim, Sports Direct, Wagerline, Nova Scotia Tourism and The Canadian Cancer Society. She was featured on the covers of Eco Apparel catalogue, en.Vision and Faces Magazine and her ads were seen in both Elle and Ok! Magazines. Despite her modelling success, her passion has always been acting. After graduating from high school, Amy auditioned for a local agency to represent her for acting, and she began to take acting classes. Shortly thereafter, she landed her first guest starring role as Dosh in the sci-fi tv series Lexx: The Dark Zone. Amy has since worked with many leading actors - opposite of Cybil Sheppard and Tim Matheson in Martha Inc., where she played Martha Stewart's daughter, Lexi; with Dean Cain, Brian Bosworth, and Mimi Kuzyk in the action flick Phase IV; and with Chris Cuthbertson, Sebastian Spence, Christopher Shyer, Ryan Scott Greene and Nigel Bennett in Afterdark Productions feature film A Bug And A Bag of Weed and she played opposite of Joe Flaherty and Chris MacDonald in the award winning feature film Summerhood. She can also be seen as J-Roc's baby's mama in multiple episodes of Trailer Park Boys in seasons 6 and 7. She also worked opposite of Flava Flav in the new U.S.sit-com Under One Roof as his probation officer Candy. New projects to see Amy in are Hot Robots by award winning filmmaker Jay Dahl which will be aired on CTV & Bravo and multiple episodes of TV with TV's JonathanTorrens airing on TvTropolis.
